Criminal Action In Famous Divorce Suit

MRS. GRACE GUGENHEIM WAHL
Chicago, Ill., July 26.—Mrs. Grace Gugenheim Wahl refused to make any comment on the recent action of Judge Winde, Heard and Baldwin, of the circuit court, who, in declaring that the divorce of William Gugenheim from her in 1901 was obtained by fraud, collusion and criminal conspiracy, instructed state's attorney Hoyne to proceed in criminal action against the alleged parties to the fraud. Mrs. Wahl, in seeking to have the divorce declared invalid, on several occasions admitted that she had sworn falsely on the advice of her husband's counsel.
